*I dreamed that the great judgment morning Had dawned
and the trumpet had blown;
I dreamed that the nations had gathered To judgment
before the white throne;
From the throne came a bright shining angel, And stood on the land and the sea,
And swore with his hand raised to heaven, that time was no longer to be
And O, what a weeping and wailing, as the lost were told
of their fate;
They cried for the rocks and the mountains, they prayed,*

but their prayer was too late.
