

WELCOME TO CAMPOUT

November 6, 2011

No Services at Palm Grove Today

“And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.” Genesis 33:10

Discipleship Class/Worship Service 10:00 a.m.

Welcome & Announcements

Singing: c/o Brendan Nolt

Offering

Teaching: “Jacob & Esau Reconciled” Genesis 27:41-46; 32; 33
-by Pastor David R. Miller

This Evening

No service is planned. Enjoy the beauty of the day.

Last Week:

Offering	$3,670.00
Sunday School	48.52
Youth Fund	288.02

Next Week's Lesson: “Joseph's Example of Purity”

Genesis 39:1-15, 19-21

Next Sunday Message: Pastor Pete Weaver

“We must make it our constant, conscious ambition and aim to be holy, as an athlete sets his sights on winning an Olympic gold medal.”

-Nancy Leigh DeMoss

“Strive for . . . Holiness without which no one will see the Lord”

Hebrews 12:14

ANNOUNCEMENTS

This Week At Palm Grove:

Wednesday - Meet at 7:30 for Bible study and prayer. David R. Miller will lead our discussion on “Assurance of Salvation.”

The Sewing Committee says “thank you so very much” to all who participated at the sewing on Tuesday. It was greatly appreciated.

Our pastors and their wives will be attending the BMA Regional Meeting in Marianna, FL, on Friday and Saturday, returning home Saturday evening.

Our school is participating in “Operation Christmas Child” and is inviting the church to help with the shipping. Each box costs $7. If you are able to help please give your money to Cayla Burkholder by Nov. 13.

Clothing is needed for the homeless, men and women. See Mark Schwartz for more information.

Thank you to Bruce and Jane Troyer and the camping committee for heading up our camping weekend.

Youth Announcements

Wednesday - Meet in the church for the Bible study on “Assurance of Salvation.”

Saturday - Happy birthday Javin Knepp!!

Saturday - Meet at JR's at 8:00 a.m. for a work project at their neighbors.